A BILL

To amend title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to make improvements in benefit accrual standards.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Pension Preservation 5 and Portability Act of 2005”.

1 SEC. 2. IMPROVEMENTS IN BENEFIT ACCRUAL STANDARDS.

2 (a) AMENDMENTS TO THE EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT
3 INCOME SECURITY ACT OF 1974.—

4 (1) RULES RELATING TO REDUCTION IN AC-
5 CRUED BENEFITS BECAUSE OF ATTAINMENT OF ANY 6 AGE.—Section 204(b)(1)(H) of the Employee Retirement
7 Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C.
8 1054(b)(1)(H)) is amended by adding at the end the 9 following new clauses:

10 “(vii)(I) A plan complies with clause (i) if a partici-
11 pant’s entire accrued benefit, as determined as of any date
12 under the formula for determining benefits as set forth 13 in the text of the plan documents, would be equal to or 14 greater than that of any similarly situated, younger indi-15 vidual.

16 “(II) For purposes of this clause, an individual is 17 similarly situated to a participant if such individual is 18 identical to such participant in every respect (including pe-
19 riod of service, compensation, position, date of hire, work 20 history, and any other respect) except for age.

21 “(III) In determining the entire accrued benefit for 22 purposes of this clause, the subsidized portion of any early 23 retirement benefit (including any early retirement subsidy 24 that is fully or partially included or reflected in an employ-25 ee’s opening balance or other transition benefits) shall be 26 disregarded.

1           “(viii) A plan shall not be treated as failing to meet
2 the requirements of this subparagraph solely because the 3 plan provides allowable offsets against those benefits
4 under the plan which are attributable to employer con-5 tributions, based on benefits which are provided under 6 title II of the Social Security Act, the Railroad Retirement
7 Act of 1974, or under any retirement program for officers
8 or employees of the Federal Government or of the govern-
9 ment of any State or political subdivision thereof. For pur-
10 poses of this clause, allowable offsets based on such bene-11 fits consist of offsets equal to all or part of the actual 12 benefit payment amounts, reasonable projections or esti-
13 mations of such benefit payment amounts, or actuarial 14 equivalents of such actual benefit payment amounts, pro-15 jections, or estimations (determined on the basis of rea-16 sonable actuarial assumptions).

17           “(ix) A plan shall not be treated as failing to meet
18 the requirements of this subparagraph solely because the 19 plan provides a disparity in contributions or benefits with 20 respect to which the requirements of section 401(l) of the 21 Internal Revenue Code of 1986 are met.

22           “(x)(I) A plan shall not be treated as failing to meet 23 the requirements of this subparagraph solely because the 24 plan provides for pre-retirement indexing of accrued bene-
25 fits under the plan.

1           “(II) For purposes of this clause, the term ‘pre-re-2   tirement indexing’ means, in connection with an accrued 3   benefit, the periodic adjustment of the accrued benefit by 4   means of the application of a recognized index or method-
5   ology so as to protect the economic value of the benefit 6   against inflation prior to distribution.”.

7           (2) DETERMINATIONS OF ACCRUED BENEFIT AS 8   BALANCE OF BENEFIT ACCOUNT.—Section 203 of 9   such Act (29 U.S.C. 1053) is amended by adding at 10   the end the following new subsection:

11          “(f)(1) A defined benefit plan under which the ac-12   crued benefit payable under the plan upon distribution (or 13   any portion thereof) is expressed as the balance of an ac-14   count maintained for the participant shall not be treated 15   as failing to meet the requirements of subsection (a)(2)
16   and section 205(g) solely because of the amount actually 17   made available for such distribution under the terms of 18   the plan, in any case in which—

19           “(A) the applicable interest rate that would be 20   required to discount the participant’s accrued benefit 21   projected under the terms of the plan to normal re-22   tirement age to a present value equal to the amount 23   actually made available for distribution under the 24   plan is not greater than 25           “(B) a market rate of return.

1 “(2) The Secretary of the Treasury may provide by 2 regulation for rules governing the calculation of a market 3 rate of return for purposes of paragraph (1) and for per-4 missible methods of crediting interest to the account (in-5 cluding variable interest rates) resulting in effective rates 6 of return meeting the requirements of paragraph (1).”.

7 (b) AMENDMENTS TO THE INTERNAL REVENUE
8 CODE OF 1986.—

9 (1) RULES RELATING TO REDUCTION IN AC-
10 CRUED BENEFITS BECAUSE OF ATTAINMENT OF ANY 11 AGE.—Subparagraph (H) of section 411(b)(1) of the 12 Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (relating to contin-13 ued accrual beyond normal retirement age) is 14 amended—

15 (A) by striking the heading and inserting
16 the following: “RULES RELATING TO REDUC-17 TION IN ACCRUED BENEFITS BECAUSE OF AT-18 TAINMENT OF ANY AGE.—”; and 19 (B) by adding at the end the following:

20 “(vi) COMPARISON TO SIMILARLY SIT-
21 UATED, YOUNGER INDIVIDUALS.—

22 “(I) IN GENERAL.—A plan shall
23 not be treated as failing to meet the 24 requirements of clause (i) if, as of any 25 applicable date, a participant’s entire

1 accrued benefit, as determined under 2 the formula for determining benefits
3 as set forth in the text of the plan
4 documents, would be equal to or 5 greater than that of any similarly sit-6 uated, younger individual.

7 “(II) SIMILARLY SITUATED INDI-
8 VIDUAL.—For purposes of this clause,
9 an individual is similarly situated to a 10 participant if such individual is iden-
11 tical to such participant in every re-12 spect (including period of service,
13 compensation, position, date of hire,
14 work history, and any other respect)
15 except for age.

16 “(III) SUBSIDIZED PORTION OF 17 EARLY RETIREMENT BENEFIT DIS-
18 REGARDED.—In determining the en-19 tire accrued benefit for purposes of 20 this clause, the subsidized portion of 21 any early retirement benefit shall be
22 disregarded.

23 “(vii) ALLOWABLE OFFSETS.—A plan
24 shall not be treated as failing to meet the 25 requirements of this subparagraph solely

1 because the plan provides allowable offsets
2 against those benefits under the plan
3 which are attributable to employer con-
4 tributions, based on benefits which are 5 provided—

6 “(I) under title II of the Social 7 Security Act, the Railroad Retirement
8 Act of 1974, or under any retirement 9 program for officers or employees of 10 the Federal Government or of the gov-
11 ernment of any State or political sub-12 division thereof, or

13 “(II) under another defined ben-
14 efit plan which meets the require-
15 ments of this subparagraph or a de-
16 fined contribution plan which meets 17 the requirements of paragraph (2), if 18 such offset is determined under a for-19 mula which does not provide for the 20 commencement of, or any increase in,
21 the offset upon the attainment of any 22 specified age of the participant.

23 For purposes of this clause, allowable off-
24 sets based on such benefits consist of off-
25 sets equal to the actual benefit payment

1 amounts, reasonable projections or esti-
2 mations of such benefit payment amounts,
3 or actuarial equivalents of such actual ben-
4 efit payment amounts, projections, or esti-
5 mations (determined on the basis of rea-
6 sonable actuarial assumptions).

7 “(viii) COMPLIANCE WITH RULES PER-
8 MITTING DISPARITY IN PLAN CONTRIBU-
9 TIONS OR BENEFITS.—A plan shall not be 10 treated as failing to meet the requirements 11 of this subparagraph solely because the 12 plan provides a disparity in contributions
13 or benefits with respect to which the re-
14 quirements of section 401(l) are met.

15 “(ix) PRE-RETIREMENT INDEXING.—

16 “(I) IN GENERAL.—A plan shall
17 not be treated as failing to meet the 18 requirements of this subparagraph 19 solely because the plan provides for 20 pre-retirement indexing of accrued
21 benefits under the plan.

22 “(II) DEFINITION.—For pur-
23 poses of this clause, the term ‘pre-re-
24 tirement indexing’ means, in connec-
25 tion with an accrued benefit, the peri-

1           odic adjustment of the accrued benefit
2           by means of the application of a rec-3           ognized index or methodology so as to 4           protect the economic value of the ben-
5           efit against inflation prior to distribu-
6           tion.”.

7           (2) DETERMINATIONS OF ACCRUED BENEFIT AS 8           BALANCE OF BENEFIT ACCOUNT.—Subsection (a) of 9           section 411 of such Code (relating to minimum vest-10          ing standards) is amended by adding at the end the 11          following new paragraph:

12           “(13) MAINTENANCE OF NONFORFEITABILITY
13          OF BENEFITS EXPRESSED AS ACCOUNT BALANCE.—

14           “(A) IN GENERAL.—A defined benefit plan 15          under which the accrued benefit payable under 16          the plan upon distribution (or any portion 17          thereof) is expressed as the balance of an ac-18          count maintained for the participant shall not 19          be treated as failing to meet the requirements 20          of paragraph (2) or 417(e) solely because of the 21          amount actually made available for such dis-22          tribution under the terms of the plan, in any 23          case in which—

24           “(i) the applicable interest rate that 25          would be required to discount the partici-

1           pant’s accrued benefit projected under the 2           terms of the plan to normal retirement age
3           to a present value equal to the amount ac-4           tually made available for distribution under 5           the plan is not greater than 6                       “(ii) a market rate of return.

7                       “(B) REGULATIONS.—The Secretary may 8           provide by regulation for rules governing the 9           calculation of a market rate of return for pur-
10          poses of subparagraph (A) and for permissible 11          methods of crediting interest to the account (in-12          cluding variable interest rates) resulting in ef-
13          fective rates of return meeting the requirements 14          of subparagraph (A).”.

15          (c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by 16          this section shall apply to plan years beginning before, on, 17          or after the date of the enactment of this Act.
